Please join us at a book reception to celebrate the release of Toward a Humanist Justice, a new book that honors and examines the work of the late Susan Moller Okin, former colleague and friend.

Contributors to the volume are: Nancy Rosenblum (Harvard), Josh Cohen (Stanford), Elizabeth Wingrove (Michigan), John Tomasi (Brown), David Miller (Oxford), Molly Shanley (Vassar), Cass Sunstein (Harvard), Ayelet Shachar (Toronto), Alison Jaggar (Colorado), Chandran Kukathas (LSE), Robert Keohane (Princeton), and Iris Marion Young (Chicago).

The volume is edited by Debra Satz (Stanford) and Rob Reich (Stanford).

All proceeds from the sale of the book will be donated to Global Fund for Women, an organization whose work Susan supported. The Global Fund for Women advances human rights by investing in women-led organizations worldwide. Its international network of women and men mobilizes financial resources to support women's contributions to social justice, equality and peace.

Sponsored by the Stanford University's Bowen H. McCoy Family Center for Ethics in Society, the Department of Political Science, the Program in Feminist Studies, and the Clayman Institute for Gender Research.
