

MASTERS PROGRAM IN PHILOSOPHY

GSU DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

- ◆ Two-year MA program consistently ranked one of the best in the nation
- ◆ Excellent placement record
- ◆ 19 faculty members
- ◆ Areas of strength in:
 - ◆ Legal / Political Philosophy
 - ◆ Neurophilosophy / Philosophy of Mind
 - ◆ Kant / Post-Kantian German Philosophy
- ◆ JD/MA degree ranked 2nd in nation
- ◆ Neurophilosophy Track affiliated with GSU's Neuroscience Institute
- ◆ Exchange programs with Sorbonne (Paris) and Bielefeld Univ. (Germany)
- ◆ Home of the Jean Beer Blumenfeld Ethics Center

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

- ◆ Every admitted student receives full tuition and either an assistantship, scholarship, or fellowship
- ◆ Neurophilosophy Fellowships (3)
 - ◆ $15,000/year
- ◆ Legal/Political Philosophy Scholarship
 - ◆ $15,000/year
- ◆ German Philosophy Scholarship
 - ◆ $15,000/year
- ◆ Assistantships (up to 20)
 - ◆ $5,000-$10,000/year
- ◆ Georgia State is an equal opportunity employer. The department seeks diversity. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

Information at www.gsu.edu/philosophy or email Tim O'Keefe at tokeefe@gsu.edu

Initial Application Deadline: February 1, 2012